

General and Misc. Questions

How to use this FAQ

How to Search for your question

(Do this FIRST)

On the top left, click "Advanced Search" under key word, type in the key words you are looking for.

I.E. If you are looking for information about silvers, type in silvers into the key word search

How to ASK a question

After you searched for you question and couldn't find it, click on "Ask Question". Type away but remember that you need to fill out all three fields.

How to ANSWER a question

If you wish to help the effort, click on "Open Questions" and you can see questions people have asked that have not been answered yet. Just make sure you add several RELAVENT keywords so that it is easily searchable.

How to ADD an entry

If you find a question missing, but know the answer, use the "Add Content" feature. Once again, make sure you add lots of relavent keywords.

NOTE

If you answer a question or add a content, it will not be posted on the FAQ until an admin approves of it.
